

K-love is an inspiration to me and my family. It keeps me focused on the important things. If K-love were taken off the air, my family and I would be forced to listen to other stations that do not promote moral issues. I feel it is detrimental to keep wholesome stations available because the mainstream is degrading to our values.